

"Stand Tall, Talossans"

(The National Anthem of Talossa)

1
1.Stand tall, Ta-los - sans, the pen - in-su-la de - fend. No foe nor vil-lain can your love of coun - try rend. Raise high your ban-ner, your pas - sion penned un - to:

4

7
"Loyal to our sov'-reign, let our minds and hearts be true." 2.Read by the torch of bright tra-

10
di-tions red and green, Our king - dom's sto-ry is yours to be lived and seen.

13
Press, glheb and cul-ture, a he - ri - tage of fun: Send out the mes - sage that's in-

16
vit - ing ev - 'ry - one! 3.We are the fu - ture of this an - cient, gal - lant land.

19
Hold fast the for - tress while citi - zen rolls ex - pand. Watch on the riv - er; raise the no - ble, fer - vent cry: "Go tell the na - tions that no Ces - toûr am I!"

22

Glheb a (pronounced "lyeth") means the Talossan Language; a Ces-toûr (pronounced "ches-TOOR") is a resident of Talossan land who is not in fact a citizen of Talossa.